

The Best Web Sites on Capitol Hill

The Gold Mouse Project seeks to improve Member, committee, and leadership Web sites by identifying best and innovative practices that can be more widely adopted by House & Senate offices.

Each of the 135 Mouse Award-winning congressional Web sites scored an "A" in our evaluations and exemplify the sort of effective and successful Internet presence that is possible for any Senate Member, House Member, committee, or leadership office to attain.

ABOUT THE PARTNERSHIP

The Partnership For A More Perfect Union envisions a United States where Members of Congress and citizens have a vibrant, active, and engaged relationship characterized by mutual respect, a sense of shared purpose, and a dedication to the tenets of representative democracy.

We seek to further our nation's progress toward "a more perfect union" by fostering the genuine and effective exchange of ideas between Members of Congress and citizens. The Partnership seeks to accomplish this mission by conducting research and education, promoting best practices, and creating innovative tools for everyone with a stake in our government.
